This is a photo of Margaret Stoy, Marian and Viola Stoy's sister. I do not know for sure other person is in the photo but they look alike so it must be one of the other sisters. If Blanche, and it is not Viola. It would have to be either Marian or Lillian. Just guessing another photo of Margaret Stoy, wearing the same outfit, and it is written on the back of photo, "little Margaret Stoy borne on a farm Crystal Lake Ave."

I do know the Stoy's lived on Crystal Lake.

Dear Ann and Bob,

I just wanted to thank you both again for all that you have shared with me, and not only finding Marian for me, but finding Brenda for me. I am grateful and amazed that I have found you both.

Brenda sent a copy of Mary B. Stoy and Viola's diary to me. I have gone from knowing nothing about my grandmother and the Stoy Family to understanding a great deal. The credit and gratitude goes to you both. Thank you.

I researched the Gloucester City News and the Courier Post looking for an article about Marian's death and an obituary. The GC News began in 1927 and the Courier Post started in the 1940s.

I did find out that Marian's daughter, Lillian Pollick, died Nov. 23, 1923. Madeline Andrews had Lillian's death documented on the back of a picture honoring her (Madeline's) late mother, Mary J. Blake Pollick. The picture is the gates to heaven. It says: "Gone But Not Forgotten".

I will try to find her birth date.

Take care.

Eileen Pollick

Good Morning Ann,

Sorry it has taken so long to get back to you about the Pollick side of the family.

The 1930 census listed Frank Pollick Sr as W.Frank. Could the W have stood for widow?

My mother's given name is Madeline Margaret (Stoy) Pollick(Andrews). Madeline and John Andrews never legally adopted her. They nicknamed her "Betty Jane." I don't know what the name or letter after the J could be in the 1930 census. Could it be Stoy? Madeline Andrews wanted to keep my mother's connection to the Stoy's. Madeline Andrews said that was why she never changed my mother's name legally. However, my mother went through 12 years of school as Betty Jane Andrews. My mother was raised Catholic, and it was when she was making her wedding plans that she learned the truth. Madeline Andrews was concerned that St. Mary's Church would not call her name out in the wedding bands as Andrews because her baptism records were Pollick. Frank Jr. was brought into the Andrew's home probably around age 7. Neighbors told Madeline Andrews that when Frank Pollick Sr. would leave for work in the morning, Frank Jr., have to sit on the baby-sitter's steps until she got up. Madeline and John took Frank Jr. in as Betty Jane's cousin. I don't know why he didn't show up in the 1930 census??

I don't think the Campbell's in Morris County are related.

Here's what I know about the Blakes and the Pollicks. All oral history.

Mary J. Blake left Portland, Maine for Gloucester City, NJ looking for work. She left Portland with her young daughter, my mother's aunt, Mary J. Blake, Jr. Supposedly mother or daughter was related to the McCanns of Tom McCann Shoes. Mary J. Blake found work at the Wellsback factory in Gloucester City, NJ. She met and married Frank Pollick who was widowed with two children, Albert and Louisa Pollick. Together Mary Blake and Frank Pollick had two children, Madeline and Frank Pollick Sr. So the family consisted of Mary and Frank Pollick and the five children: hers, his and theirs. Frank Pollick came to Gloucester City from Italy. His Italian name was Lombardo. He changed his name to Pollick to fit in. Frank Pollick later left Mary Blake Pollick for a younger woman. She took in wash to support herself, and the kids. They lived on a farm in Gloucester, NJ, where the young Mary rode horses bareback. The farm was called Pollick's Farm. A local man wrote a poem about how nice Pollick's Farm was. It was printed in the Gloucester City News many times. The last time I saw the poem, I was around six years old. I'll try to find it.

Mary J. Blake Sr. died at age 50, March 1914. She was involved in a house fire. On her death bed she asked her daughter Madeline Pollick Andrews to look after her half sister Mary Blake. So Mary Blake always lived with Madeline and John Andrews at 328 Bergen St., Gloucester City, NJ until the sisters had a little disagreement over tripping over rugs. In 1967 or 1968 Mary Blake moved out and got an apartment on Hudson St. in Gloucester, NJ. Mary Blake Jr. died, August 1969. She never married. Madeline Pollick Andrews died in 1976 or 1977. John Andrews died around 1968. Frank Pollick Sr., March 17, 1967. I don't know much about Albert Pollick. He had a son named Jack Pollick who married Edna? They lived in California. Jack would be about 83 years old. Jack had a sister named Helen. She lived in Ohio. Louisa Pollick married a man named Butler. They had a few children. One daughter was Thelma Butler Geitz. Thelma's daughter married a man named Love.

I write soon.

Bye for now.

Viola was Viola Mary Stoy. She definitely had a sister Lillian. I have her on a census in 1920 and she is listed in the diary as Lillian Endrise later (married)

I suppose she could have been disowned as well. I know she loved her mother and she had her mother's diary. Could have been as simple as an undertaker error. We will never know. I was thinking about it. Did you know that my grandmother lived two doors down from her future husband on Crystal Lake road there in Haddonfield. George Wenner lived next to Harry P. Stoy's widowed mother, who lived next to Marian Stoy Pollick, who lived next to Harry P Stoy in 1920.

Subject: Re: Margaret Dies in this one

Dear Brenda,

Oh my God. What a sad but beautiful entry and tribute to her mother that Viola wrote. Margaret must have been a wonderful mother to her children. And your grandmother, Viola was a deep woman with a value system to have written such an entry about her Mother Margaret, wife of Harry Stoy, mother of Marian, Viola, Blanche, Leon, Margaret, and Lillian. Such sensitivity. The Stoy's are record keepers...

I have been trying to get the time to explain Marian's story to you, as I have related it to Ann and Bob. Amazingly, reading the diary entry entitled "Margaret Dies in this One", gives Marian's story relevance.

Here goes.

I was told Marian died, committed suicide, by turning the gas stove on in the kitchen while her six week old daughter, Madeline Margaret Pollick lied in her bassinet and her five year old son, Frank Pollick Jr., was with her in the kitchen. This story was told to my mother, Madeline Pollick, Marian's daughter by Frank Pollick, Sr's two sisters who raised their sister-in-laws children, Frank and Madeline Pollick. When Marian was found in the kitchen, Frank, Jr. was lying next to his mother.

My mother was raised by Madeline and John Andrews and Mary Blake, Frank Pollick, Sr's sisters and brother-in-law. She grew up believing she was John and Madeline Pollick Andrews' child. She was told Frank Pollick, Sr was her uncle and Frank Pollick, Jr (who did not immediately join the home) was her cousin. Frank, Jr lived with his father for a while after his mother's death. Eventually Madeline Andrews took him in. My mother did not learn the truth until her pending marriage in 1947. There was no contact from the Stoy family until Jan. 1948 when Frank Pollick, Jr died in the army, was viewed at McCann's Funeral home in Gloucester City. At his viewing, two Stoy sisters came into the funeral home, paid their respects to Frank, Jr. but never approached my mother or Marian's sister-in-law who raised her children. My mother remembers one of them saying, "there she is.", referring to my mother.

Madeline Andrews and Mary Blake, Frank Pollick, Sr's sisters told this story: Marian supposedly eloped with Frank Pollick, Sr. by climbing out her bedroom window. Her father was not happy about her marrying Frank and disowned her. Marian and her mother were very close and remained close until Margaret's death just before my mom was born. (The disowning part is questionable in my mind due to the fact Marian and Frank lived on Crystal Lake Ave between Mary Stoy, Harry's mother, Marian's grandmother and Harry Stoy, Marian's father for a while, according to the 1920 census.) However, there could have been a falling out between Harry and Marian, at some point. Marian, Frank Sr, Frank, Jr, and Lillian wound up living on Somerset St. in Gloucester City, NJ. Margaret would visit with a kettle of beer. Marian loved her mother. Marian had a piano in this house and loved to play it. Here is where things begin to deteriorate. Marian's daughter, Lillian died of Meningitis. I am not sure of dates, yet. Margaret, Marian's mother dies, Aug 03, 1924, Marian gives birth to my mother Madeline on November 24, 1924. Marian commits suicide, Jan 10, 1925. My mother was told in 1947, Marian suffered from post partum depression and a broken heart. Losing her four year old daughter to meningitis and her mother were all too much for her. (And now to find out Margaret died from cancer, how painful for Marian and all the children)

And Brenda, Viola had your Mom on Nov. 8, 1924. So the two sisters were pregnant at the same time. Your mom and my mom were first cousins and could have had a relationship, had things been different. And poor Viola lost her mother just before giving birth, also. She probably wrote the diary entry while pregnant with your mom.

I live ten miles/ten minutes from Crystal Lake Ave. in Haddonfield. Everytime I have had to drive through the area, I would feel uneasy, wanting to stop in the Historical Society building to research the family. Responsibilities always took precedence. I find it hard to believe I have found you three cousins and Marian. In my wildest dreams, I never imagined getting so close to everyone. Marian has always been a mystery to me, but someone I felt affection toward. I never judged her for what she did, just wanted to know her. It must have been so painful for her to lose a daughter and her mother. But through Viola's words and eyes we can see how sensitive they were and how much in Viola's words their Mother was loved. It is so wonderful that the diary was written and preserved all these years.

I still just can not believe we have found each other.

Thank you.

Cousin Eileen

HEy, this is soooo cool! I love it. Let me send you this too:

There was an article in the March 3, 1859 New Jersey Mirror newspaper about a man named Isaac Rogers in the employ of Joseph Stoy:

Headline: Sudden Death.

A young man named Isaac Rogers, sone of Joseph Rogers near Medford, was killed very suddenly on Thursday last. He was in the employ of Joseph Stoy, and was carting logs, and when near Milford, he attempted to jump from the front of the wagon, when his feet caught in the traces or swingle-trees, and he fell upon his head, breaking his neck. A man and a boy were not far off, with another team, and upon coming up to him, found him dead. He was about 21 years of age, and was a sober, industrious young man. Taking into consideration his uniformly temperate habits, the accident may be looked upon as one of those mysterious dispensations of Providence, which cannot be accounted for. In a state of the most perfect health, he was instantly summoned from Time to Eternity.

I thought it was a really cool article.

Now about the diary. It appears to be a diary that was first owned by Mary BStoy, MOTHER of Harry B. Stoy. Then, it appears to have been taken over by my grandmother Viola Stoy Wenner. There are two different handwritings in it. The inside cover appears to have a date of 1901 and my grandmother was born in 1901. The first part of the book is alot of religious writings. Then, the births of children, my mother included are in the book. The death of Margaret Stoy is written about. Then there are some addresses. I have to confess that I have not read the whole thing. I am going to scan it in....

Here is the front cover and inside cover and page one. The book is little, maybe 3x5 inches. Let me know if this is readable for you and I will continue to scan...

+ Stoy

Hey, very nice! I had been wondering how Marion Stoy fit into the family picture.

Now Harry P. Stoy's wife, I have no last name. Gertrude is her middle name. I will try to write to NJ for their marriage licence.

ALSO> Viola Mary Stoy never married Harry Brosius. He was her boyfriend. I mention him because he was a huge part of our lives for 30 years AFTER Viola died. We called him POP-POP even though he was never a blood relative. You may want to remove him if you want. Viola Divorced George Wenner and they both remarried.

Leon Stoy never married. He was not all there mentally.

Marguerite Stoy had a nickname, "Mocky." She was in and out of mental institutions. She later lived alone, never married and lived a very eccentric life. My brother, who is 15 years older than I, remembers her well. I have a photo of her. She kept money in Paper bags all over her house. When she ventured out, she would take a paper bag of money with her. She had a model a ford which she kept in a garage attached to her home. She polished it non-stop, even the undercarriage. Never took it out in the rain or snow. She later got a 1940 Ford and kept it the same way. My mother used to go check on her.

I will work on getting some of that other stuff documented. I have Viola's obit:

Obituary: Mrs. Viola M. Wenner, 59, died Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Harris of Union Mill Road, Marlton. Surviving are two sons, George and Raymond, and two other daughters, Mrs. Viola Yetneck and Mrs. Doris Swindell all four of Florida; three sisters and fourteen grandchildren. Services will be held at 2pm at a funeral home at 74 East Main Street, Marlton where friends may call from 12pm to 2pm. Burial will be in Harleigh Cemetery.

I want to share something else with you. I am attaching a 1920 Census. It is of Crystal Lake Road in Haddonfield. On it is listed a bunch of my family members and yours too.

THEN Frank A. Pollick and his wife Marian Stoy Pollick

THEN IT SAYS Frank A Stoy. Wife Margaret and Leon, Lillian, Marguerite and Viola. I THINK THE CENSUS TAKER ACCIDENTLY WROTE FRANK A, just as he did for the FRANK A POLLICK instead of writing HARRY P. This is undoubtedly the Harry P. Stoy family, all the names and dates and even the address add up.

Can you comment.

Dear Brenda,
So glad to hear from you. Thank you so much for the photos of your grandmom Viola, and the family history. Viola's sister is my grandmom, Marian. As you know, we never saw Marian.

I cannot believe the resemblance between your grandmom and my mother. They both have the same high cheek bones, shoulders, and legs, and look to be the same height. My mother is an extremely vibrant, fun loving woman, as well. She was born Nov. 24, 1924 and has always been way ahead of the times. My sister and I still can't keep up with her beauty secrets, make-up tips, etc. She loves to dance and she is always the life of the party. She still wears pencil thin high heels, etc. She drives a 2002 red Camero convertible.

I will send more pictures, as soon as I can.

If you could copy the diary, I would greatly appreciate it and will pay you for your time, and other expenses.

I cannot wait to correspond more with you. This weekend is going to be hectic for me. My free time is usually late evening. I am not going to open my mail today until tonight.

So glad to have found such nice Stoy cousins in you, Ann and Bob.

Talk to you soon.

Hi Ann,

An after thought: I was told that Marian's mother's death right before the birth of my mother, Madeline Pollick, November 24, 1924, contributed to Marian's depression. Mary Gertrude Stoy died August 03, 1924 (Margarite Gert, Gurt, Stoy???) . It makes sense. My mother always said, Marian was very close to her mother. My mother always said the loss of Marian's mother, Marian's daughter, Lillian, dying of meningitis, and the the birth of my mother were all too much for Marian. Heaven only knows what else might have driven Marian to do what she did, especially with her little boy in the house. He was around five years old.

Talk to you soon.

Dear Brenda,

My name is Eileen Vitola. My mother is Madeline Stoy Pollick. She is the daughter of Marian Stoy Pollick, Harry P. Stoy's daughter, Aaron Stoy's granddaughter. Marian died 01-10-25, when my mother was six weeks old. Her mother, Marian Stoy Pollick committed suicide six weeks after the birth of her third child, my mother Madeline. The Stoy family did not have any contact with Marian's two living children after their mother's death in 1925. They were raised by their paternal aunt, Madeline Pollick Andrews, Mrs. Andrew's husband, John Andrews and Mrs. Andrew's sister, Mary Blake. My mother had an older brother Frank, who had the only picture of their mother in his possession when he died in Japan in the line of duty in 1948, just after WWII. When the US Army returned Frank's body to the family (paternal Family), the only missing possession of Frank's was the only photo of his beloved mother Marian. My mother never saw her mother's face nor did she know Frank Stoy Pollick, Jr was her brother. She was told he was her cousin, as after Marian's death, she was raised by her paternal aunt. At his funeral, two Stoy sisters to Marian showed up to view Frank, Jr. My mother, age 24, remembers hearing the two sisters to Marian, aunts she never knew, say, "there she is". They never introduced themselves to her or their brother-in-law's sister who raised Marian's children after Marian died. The Stoy family had no contact with Marian's two living children. Marian had a child named Lillian who died of meningitis before the birth of my mother in November 24, 1924.

I so wish I could find a photo of Marian or family members for my mother.

Can you please contact me? Photos of Marian's sisters would be a gift and blessing. Sharing the diary would be a gift, as well. Talking to your brother would be awesome, as well. Your great uncle Leon and aunt Margaret are my mother's lost uncle and aunt. That makes you my mom's second cousin.

Amazingly, I was not aware, that in January my grandmother Marian and her son Frank died, however, that is the month my mother is uneasy and the month I am driven to wonder most about Marian, her family and my Stoy family roots.

I am impressed with how many Stoy descendants are driven to seek their ancestry. I think it is a genetic trait.

Looking forward to hearing from you, another family member.

Sincerely,
Eileen

ME again! I was just reading through your email again. Wanted to convey this to you. First how sorry I am that your branch of our family tree suffered such tragedy. It is so hard to lose someone, I know first hand.

But the other thing is this. Viola Mary Stoy, Harry P.s Daughter, had a brother Leon and a Sister Marguerite Stoy. Marguerite Stoy was in and out of mental hospitals and lived a very eccentric life. She lived alone, my brother can tell us where, and had an old Model A Ford that she polished relentlessly. She never drove it in the rain and even polished the underside of the car. Later she got a 1940 Ford and kept it the same way. Somehow, She had money, lots of it. But she kept it in paper bags all over the house. When she did venture out in her car, she took a paper bag of money with her. She had a nickname, everyone called her "MOCKY." I do have a photo of her I will get to you.

Leon was also "not all there in the head." He never married either.

My grandmother Viola Mary Stoy was a vibrant, pretty woman who divorced my grandfather and went through a few boyfriend! She was a bit of a rebel for those times I would bet!

ANYWAY, just wanted to tell you some more about the others in the family.

ANOTHER sister, Blanche Stoy, I have met. She used to live next door to us in Williamstown Junction New Jersey. She lived in a small house with a fence around the yard and she had geese. They would not let anyone in the yard!!! Her husband, Charles Woodfall had a severe stroke in his later years and was confined to a hospital bed right in their living room. I remember that creeping me out a little! He was paralyzed on his left side and could not speak or take care of himself. They never had children.

More later, I gotta make dinner for the family!!!

Cousin Brenda!!

My goodness, aren't the Stoy's Adorable! I love looking at the old photos. Life was so different then. I like to read non-fiction books about people and the lives they lead, burdens they bore, and imagine how hard life was. Now, granted, by looking at that Stoy House, life was not horrible! But it was a far cry from the pampered lives we now lead in the year 2004.

It is so very interesting to see these people. Even without photos of the vast majority of our families, you and I and Bob and any who are researching as we are, have come to know our ancestors. We are fortunate!

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE PHOTOS!

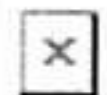

HEY, here is a couple of Viola Stoy, born on the Fourth of July, 1900. She died of uterine cancer in the home in which I was born on Union Mill Road in Marlton, NJ. She is buried in Harleigh Cemetery. I have her obituary and others I will share with you as well. I also have her funeral book which has signatures of those attending her funeral I can scan for you as well.

Tell Bob that I am grateful to him as well for that website of his is fantastic!!!!!!!!!!

I went over to Bob's website, I found it last night. It is wonderful. How fun! I love the photo of Crystal Lake.

I can certainly forward to all of you the next generations down from those I sent already. Viola Mary Stoy was my grandmother. Will be glad to share photos of her as well. She was somewhat a rebel! I have photos of her with motorcycles and bathing suits, she lived life that is for sure!

I have only been working on my family tree for about 6 months with any tenacity. I started it in 1998 after losing both my parents and then just stopped when my son went off to college. I am back to it. I bought a nice fast computer to work with and am committed. I am using Family Tree Maker Software. What are you using?

I can tell by Bob's website that you two are really good at this stuff. I do admire your attention to source documents. I have learned the hard way that you really have to verify everything yourself, through some sort of paper trail. There is misinformation in the web.

I live in Orlando Florida. I am 46 and work for a local city as a Civic Center Director. My husband plays alot of golf so I take advantage of the time he is playing to LOOK FOR DEAD PEOPLE on the internet!!! I have discovered all kinds of fun stuff. I am very interested in Marion Pollick too. I wonder what happened there.

Let me know what I might have that you are interested in and keep me posted. We will all certainly keep in touch!!

Cousin Brenda in Florida!

Hello again Ann. I have been pondering ever since I read your email that I definately had heard of Marion Pollick! I knew I saw her name before. WELL, in my PILE of research papers, I have a DIARY. It belonged to Viola Stoy and her mother Mary Stoy before her! There is a note in there that says, Mrs. Marion (sister) Pollick died Jan 10, 1925. AND I MISSED IT!!!! I mean I have seen it but just did not know who's sister. I thought maybe Marion was Mary Stoy's sister. Isn't that a hoot!!!

I would be delighted to share this diary with you and Marions daughter. I have photos of my grandmother Viola Stoy and her sister Blanche Stoy. I have a brother who is 15 years older than me and he remembers all those folks better than I. I believe that my great Uncle Leon Stoy and his sister Margaret (Mocky was her nickname) were kinda eccentric!

Again, I am so Excited that you emailed me. We are cousins somehow as are Bob, Marions children and grandchildren! HOW FUN!

We have a big family here in Florida!!

Oh Ann, I am so sorry for not checking my query! I tell you, I have been overwhelmed with incoming information about a bunch of the branches of our family tree. I can't even keep up!!

It doesn't help that I work and you know about the cooking dinner, laundry problems we all have that interfere with the fun stuff!!!

ANYWAY, I am delighted to hear from you. Let me introduce myself.....

Harry P. Stoy had a daughter Viola Mary Stoy. Viola Married George Wenner and had a daughter Margaret Wenner. Margaret Wenner married Walter Harris and had me!

Here is a puzzle! I did not have a Marion as one of the sisters of Viola Mary Stoy! Here is the Harry P. Stoy thing:

Dear Ann:

So glad to hear from you. I understand how busy you must be. I can't believe how busy my husband Carl and I are at this point in our lives. We had more free time years ago. I keep asking myself, am I moving slower or what??? I just don't have the stamina that I used to have. Our parents need us more now, as well. Carl is a family physician and I manage his office.

My mother went through her records, but had no documentation of the names of Marian's sisters who came to Frank Pollick Jr.'s funeral. Mom thinks Viola sounds familiar. Mom said she believes Marian's mother's maiden name was (Margariete) Gurt. After finding out Marian lived on Crystal Lake Ave. with her husband Frank Pollick, next door to her grandmother Mary and next door to her father Harry, it shed light on why her two sisters went to Frank Jr.'s funeral. The sisters may have had a relationship with little Frank while they lived on Crystal Lake Ave. My question remains why did the Stoy's not stay in touch with Marian's children after her death? My version was that the Stoy's disowned Marian for marrying Frank. But in my opinion that could not have been so in light of the fact that Marian and Frank were living between Marian's grandmother and father on Crystal Lake Ave. How they wound up on Ridgeway St. in Gloucester City, NJ is a mystery. Marian's mom, Margarite, supposedly visited Marian in Gloucester, but not Harry. Harry must have had a falling out. My mother's aunt, Madeline Andrews (Frank Pollick, Sr's sister) who raised Frank Jr. and my mother never legally changed my mother's name, thinking the Stoy's would contact her. It never happened.

Family history has benefitted me. I have a similar situation within my immediate family. I am the aunt to two children who were estranged to us. I kept in touch, sent gifts equal to what all the other nieces and nephews received, etc. My motivation, my great aunts that did not keep in touch with my mother and Frank, Jr. Those two kids are grown now and are part of our life, as well as their mother, my brother's former wife. Because of my nature, I probably would have kept connected to those kids anyway, but wishing those aunts had connected with Marian's kids motivated me even more.

I have no idea how to obtain information on Marian's death notice or how to find out where she is buried. We were told she was buried in Pennsylvania where her mother's people were from, (the Gurt family). I can explain how she died, as it was told to my mother. Marian committed suicide six weeks after giving birth to my mother. It was attributed to post partum depression. Frank Jr. was about five. He was in the room where Marian died. Lillian, Marian's second child had recently died of meningitis. It was interesting to see Marian had a sister named Lillian. We do not know where Lillian is buried, as well. Little Frank Jr. witnessed it all. Marian's mother had recently died, also, which may have contributed to Marian's suicide.

When Frank, Jr died in Japan in 1948, his body was shipped back to the states in a coffin sealed with a glass lid. His cause of death was unknown. It has bothered my mother all these years why the glass lid and unknown cause of death. He survived the loss of his mother and sister, WWII, and was a nice boy, shy, carrying the memories of his mother's death, etc... According to my aunts he had the only photo of Marian in his wallet, which did not return home from Japan with his remains. The missing photo of Marian sparked a glimmer of hope in my mother that maybe Frank was still alive... It has hurt her all these years that she grew up being told he was her cousin.

If you and Bob are coming to New Jersey, Carl and I would love to have you, Bob and your families as our guest for dinner. It would be so nice and just fun. Please contact us. We are only ten miles from Haddonfield.

We have had no time for genealogy, I really do not know the protocol, but we are extremely family oriented. I am willing to pay fees and expenses for manuscripts, etc. But mostly, it is nice just to have a relationship with family. It is just so nice to be connected. I am fascinated by the very fact that I have been motivated to seek my Stoy roots. Silly as it sounds, I am haunted by the fact that I do not know them. My mother and aunts inadvertently made me love people that were dead before I was born. And I truly love them. What amazes me is that I believe it may be a unique Stoy trait.

Again, please keep in touch and let me know when you are in the area. We would love to get together for dinner and to meet you.

Dear Bob,

Thank you so much for locating Marian. I feel closer to Marian because of you both. I sincerely appreciate you and Ann. It is nice to know for the first time Stoy cousins.

I will try to find out the names of the two sisters that visited the funeral home. My mother has papers in her attic. She hasn't been feeling well, so I will try to get in the attic when she is feeling better.

My mother did tell me she thought Marian's mother's name was Marguerite and not Margaret.

Thank you again for sharing yourselves with me.

Have a nice weekend.

Subject: Located Marian

Dear Eileen and Ann,

It turns out that I had Marian's family but not her and one of her sisters. I was able to locate her in the 1900 and 1910 census and found that Eileen's story provided clues to the mystery of the entries in the 1920 census.

→ Marian's father was Harry P Stoy, son of Aaron Stoy, son of James R Stoy and son of Phillip Stoy. Some of this is already on the web site at STOY was born between 1832 and 1841 in New Jersey (his birth date needs verification - he was 17 in 1850, 35 in 1870 and 39 in 1880 census data). His property also abutted Saddlertown, a community of African-Americans. Aaron, Mary and Harry, along with Aaron's brother James, appeared in Haddon Township during the 1880 census. He died on 11 Feb 1896. He was buried in Harleigh Cemetery, Camden, Camden Co, New Jersey. AARON

Harry

STOY was born in Jul 1870 in New Jersey. He married Margaret [-?-] between 1891 and 1892 (based on 1900 census data). Harry, Margaret, Marion, Leon and Lillie lived in West Haddonfield, Camden Co, New Jersey during the 1900 census - no occupations were listed for any of the family. Another unnamed child had died between 1900 and 1910. Frank A Stoy is listed as age 50, the age of Harry. Harry also appeared in the 1930 census so clearly he was alive in 1920, so I'll assume that Harry is head of household in the 1920 census but the death records need to be searched. "Harry" is a farmer and Frank is listed as a shipyard worker. Harry was a widower at the time of the 1930 census and he lived with his son and two daughters in Haddon Township at the time. There is no information yet on his death date.

Marian

STOY was born in Sep 1895 in Pennsylvania. She married Frank A POLLICK. per ??

Leon?

STOY was born in Apr 1896 in New Jersey (the 1930 census has a date about 5 years later). Leon is a farm worker, probably on his father's farm, during the 1920 census.

Lillian

STOY was born in Mar 1899 in New Jersey. Lillian is a worker in a staple factory during the 1920 census.

Viola

STOY was born between 1900 and 1901 in New Jersey. Viola is a worker in a staple factory, along with her sister Lillian, during the 1920 census.

STOY was born between 1901 and 1904 in New Jersey.

f) STOY was born between 1903 and 1906 in New Jersey

One interesting item that comes out of the 1920 census is the following:

Mary, wife of Aaron Stoy, was widowed and living alone at 250 Crystal Lake Avenue, Haddon Township, Camden County during the 1920 census, and she owned the property. Also, I've done no further research on what happened to the various children of Harry, whether they married, where they lived and when they died. I think the credit goes to Eileen for providing the clues needed to straighten out this part of the family and provide a family story that is worth preserving.

Eileen, would the names of the two Stoy women who attended Frank Jr's funeral possibly be Lillian or Viola or Marguerite?

Ann, the person named Marion M Pierce was the adopted daughter of James and Estelle Stoy (Pierce is her birth parent's name). I've been in touch with her son to try to straighten out the story of James, which I need to dig into further with NJ records.

Dear Ann and Bob,

Thanks for sending the information on Frank Pollick, my uncle, Marian Stoy's son. When I opened the mail, I got chills. I have not formally done much research on my family history. I have photos of Frank, his uniform, trunk and dog tags, but reading his death notice was emotional. Once in a while I have searched for information. Unfortunately, I have not had much time to committ. Interestingly, on the 21st of January, I mentioned to my husband Carl that I didn't know why I felt compelled that morning to research Marian on the interent, although, I have in the past done so. Coincidentally, it was on the 21st of January, 1948 the Courier Post printed the notice that Frank had died.

I didn't know he was born in Westmont, NJ. That is where we were told Marian was from. He was not born in 1924. His sister, my mother was born November 24, 1924. Marian died six weeks later. Frank Jr., was about 5 years old when she died. That would place Marian's first child's birth around 1919. One has to wonder, if the Marian M. Pierce could be my grandmother. (b between 1900-01 in PA) But the Pierce and Taylor don't fit. Marian's mother was supposedly from Germantown, PA. That could logically explain her being born in PA. I would imagine she was about 18 years old or younger when she eloped with Frank Pollick. She couldn't have had been married more than once. However, again, based on the oral story, James J. Stoy (ca 1850/51 d 1938) could have been her father. Was he the Stoy the Street and school were named for?

You are right in thinking Marian is not Charles's sister. I agree she was probably born around 1898/1900. Or maybe she could have been the daughter of Maurice Stoy.

Madeline Pollick Andrews and her sister Mary Blake, (sisters to Frank Pollick, Sr. Marian's husband) along with Madeline's husband John Andrews who raised Marian's children, told us Marian was from Westmont, NJ. Frank Pollick Sr., worked for the Stoys in that area. That is how he meant Marian. Marian, we were told, was the daughter of the Stoy who the school and street were named for. But, maybe she was not the daughter, but the granddaughter. Marian's connection was definitely to the Stoys from the Westmont-Haddonfield area, based on the oral word.

As far as law suits are concerned we know nothing. Were there law suits? Over what?

We also don't know the names of the aunts that went to Frank's viewing. My mother remembers them looking at her and saying, "there she is". That was the extent of the interaction. They did not express their condolences to any of Marian's in-laws. But there had been no contact in all those years. Yet those aunts must have felt something to have come to see their nephew. I will try to find out if my mother has the sign in book from the viewing.

We were told Marian was about 5' 4", light hair, fair, beautiful and Swedish.

Marian died in January 1925 in Gloucester City, NJ. Should there be death certificate and an obituary? A marriage license?

I live about 10 miles from Haddonfield and Gloucester City. Any advice on where I could go for information? Birth certificates, marriage licenses, death certificates?

Thanks again. It is nice corresponding with you both.

Subject: Re: Stoys of NJ, Stoys Landing

Hi Ann,

I am so glad to hear from you this morning. I believe my grandmother, Marian Stoy, may be your great grandfather, Charles Stoy's sister, one of James and Margaret's seven. I have been told that Marian Stoy's mother's name was Margaret, nee, Gert, and that Margaret Gert was originally from Germantown, Pa? and her family owned a bakery. Marian Stoy, I was told climbed out her bedroom window to elope with an employee of her father's, named Frank Pollick. Her father supposedly disowned her for this. She and Frank lived on Ridgeway St. in Gloucester City, NJ where she died, six weeks after giving birth to her third child, Madeline Pollick, my mother. Marian's second child, Lillian Pollick had recently died of meningitis and Marian had also recently lost her mother, Margaret Gert Stoy who did visit Marian, despite the fact her father disowned her. There is sadness surrounding this Marian Stoy. My mother never knew her mother, Marian Stoy. Marian left behind her 6 week old daughter, my mother, and a son, Frank, Jr., about 5 years old. My mother was raised by her paternal aunts as their own, never knowing her Stoy roots or that her brother, Frank was her brother. Marian's family sadly had no contact with Marian's two children. My mother was told the truth only before she married in 1947. The only brief encounter my mother ever had with any Stoys took place around 1948 when two Stoy sisters to Marian came to the McCann's Funeral Home in Gloucester City to view Marian's son, Frank Pollick, Jr. my mother's brother. Marian's son, Frank Pollick, Jr. served in the army through the entire WWII. When the war ended, Frank reenlisted and was stationed in Japan. He died in Japan under mysterious circumstances. In his wallet he carried the only photograph of his mother Marian. My mother never saw her mother's photo. When Frank's body was sent home to McCann's Funeral Home the only item missing from his processions was the one and only picture of his beloved mother, Marion Stoy Pollick. Remember, he was 5 years when his mother, Marian died. He witnessed a tragedy. He never spoke of it and my mother thought he was her cousin because after Marian's death, he remained with his father, Frank Pollick, Sr for a period. When Frank was brought into my mother's childhood home it was under the pretense that he was a cousin, not her brother, all the while my mother believed her paternal aunt & uncle were her parents, that her biological father, Frank Pollick was her uncle. All of this oral information has been passed on to me by my mother Madeline whose two paternal aunts passed it on to her before her own marriage. I don't know how accurate it is. But we love a women we never knew. We think about Marian often. I would love for my 79 year old mother to see a photograph of her mother or perhaps any of the Stoy family. We were told Marian was buried in a cemetery in Germantown, with Margaret Gert Stoy or the Gert family.

Hope this fills in some gaps and I would appreciate any info you could share, perhaps even photos, if possible.

Thanks and take care.

Eileen
