Workers Put To Sleep

At The Pay Window
(Editor's Note: "Life With the Tax Gremlins" is a 12 part thumbnail story of the nation's complicated tax structure. The characters: Uncle Sam himself, his Gremlin, State and Local Tax Gremlins, and you — the taxpayers. It's from an "American Affairs" pamphlet published by the National Industrial Conference board of New York, an independent, non profit fact finding institution supported by business, labor and other groups. Some of the articles include comment by Richard A. Mullens, Washington tax expert and author of NEA's annual "Income Tax Primer," which appears each year in The Post Register. This is the second of the series.)

You first meet the Gremlins at the payroll window. Before you can touch your money they clip it. If you are an average industrial worker with no dependents the federal Gremlin takes more than 10 cents out of each dollar (the AF of L says 11½ cents) for your come taxes from employes, the government put the worker to sleep."

—The Honorable James F. Byrnes.

More Motorists Donate to City

Idaho Falls city coffers were richer by $20 Tuesday as result of drivers forfeiting bonds for minor traffic infractions.

Forfeiting bonds were Ronald K. Galloway, $1 for parking at a no parking zone on Market street; and Vern W. Irvine, box 294, $2 for alley parking, and Mrs. Ruth Pouch, $2 for double parking.

Bonds of $1 each for overtime parking were forfeited by Mrs. Ruby Metcalf, 123 East Fourteenth street; Chester S. Rogers, 289 East Nineteenth street; Jim Fortner, 115 West Fourteenth street; Ky Nil, Idaho Falls route 6; Kenneth K. Mansfield, Earl Caudle, 204 Lo-

ATL also said a guahome suit, Pendleton shirt, green shirt and a suitcase containing shirt, socks, handkerchiefs and other clothing were stolen from his room at the Hotel Idaho. It was the third hotel room theft reported in the city in two days.

Theft of copper wire belonging to the Utah Power and Light company two blocks from Highland park was reported by Dean L. Bryner, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Marjean Johnson, Ucon, reported theft of a spare wheel and tire, size 600 by 16, from her car parked on North Yellowstone avenue Monday night.
