Deaths

The body of Lewis Caylor, aged 23, son of Jos. Caylor was brought here Sunday for burial. The young man had just taken his wife to Oolong, Ill., and was only at work three hours, when he met with the accident which caused his death. His crew of workmen were engaged in unloading oil pipe when the scaffolding and Caylor was struck on the abdomen with an iron bar. He lived about fifty hours. The funeral was held Monday from the U. B. church. Interment at Fairview.
