Dear Bob,

Sorry for the apparent malfunction in our correspondence via E-mail.
Thanks for you last letter- 12 April.

I don't recall getting the E-mail that you mentioned but all is well now that I have your letter. In answer to your inquiry about my Stoy grandparents, I don't know why the name Albert is in my memory for the name of my granddad. But these days my memory for anything is suspect. But honestly, I never heard anyone in the household refer to him as James or Jim. To me, it was always Granddad, of course. (I wonder if James preferred being called Albert ?) But all this can be cleared up if I ever hear from my lone sister, Elaine who is somewhere between Florida and New Jersey. She and her family are trying to relocate having lived in S. Jersey all their lives 'till now. Until Christmas, I was hearing from her every week, but since then, nothing. She'll surprise me one of these days. She remembers all kinds of names from the past as well as all kinds of details.

Yes, Pierce is the maiden name of my mother. She had at least one sister named Florence whom they referred to as "Becky". She lived in California for many years. Their mother, my grandma Pierce, lived in New York City. I remember seeing her only onetime. I don't believe I ever met her husband and no one is alive now who would have that information with the possible exception of the husband of my cousin (deceased) , Marion, who was the daughter of "Becky".

The husband's name is Evert (Sinbad) Malcolm who now lives in California somewhere near San Jose so as to be near his daughter, Sandy who, I believe . is employed with a "major" airline. Or, at least, she was before her horse riding accident a few years ago(if all that means anything).

Your letter contained some interesting data such as the age differences between the Stoy parents and my mother.

Thank you for all the geneology work and I hope I have been able add something worth while.

I'll send a copy of this to your Cal address just in case this doesn't hit it's mark.
