Lafayette Hill, Pennsylvania 19444

Dear Margaret:

I have been going over the information on the two family group sheets you forwarded and I am very grateful for the information. I noticed, however, that I had the birth year of Mary Catherine Hayes Koons as 1853 and not the 1855 you had and the day of marriage as 19 Feb not 14. As this is your direct line, I'm sure the discrepancy is probably due to my poor copying of information years ago. I've corrected my database accordingly. Do you by any chance have a Bible record for this marriage or any of the older Hayes's? I also noticed that I had what appears to be more information on Margaret's sister, Clemen(tine), and I have enclosed a family group sheet. Is this new to you?

I am enclosing family group sheets for William Hayes/Margaret T. Follmer and Isaiah Hayes/Mary Ann Miller. I would appreciate it very much if you would check them against your database and tell me where we may have differences. Please add in locations, if known. Years ago I inherited a photo album that belonged to my grandmother, Louisa Emma Hayes Arnold. My first cousin tells me that as a child she and her sister moved the pictures around in it. I'm trying to verify the identity of most of them. Do you have any pictures of the early Hayes or Millers? Does the enclosed look familiar?

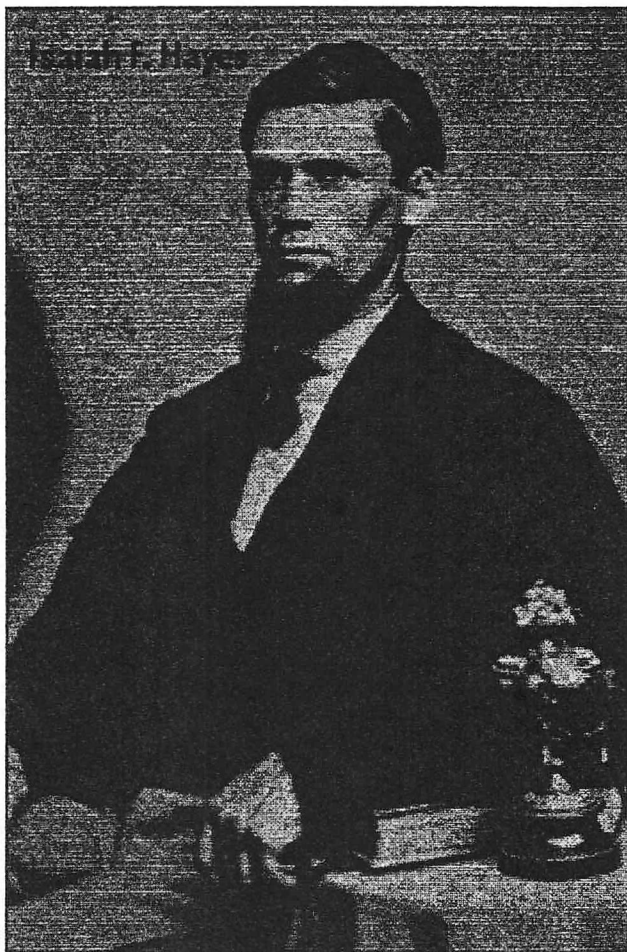

During lunch in the past several weeks I've been reading various query archives and as I recall I think I saw one from you. I thought I printed it out for future reference but for the life of me I can't find it. It had to do with a family of yours that was buried at Sand Hill Cemetery. There was an editor's footnote giving the cemetery an alternate name. Do you know if the cemetery has another name?

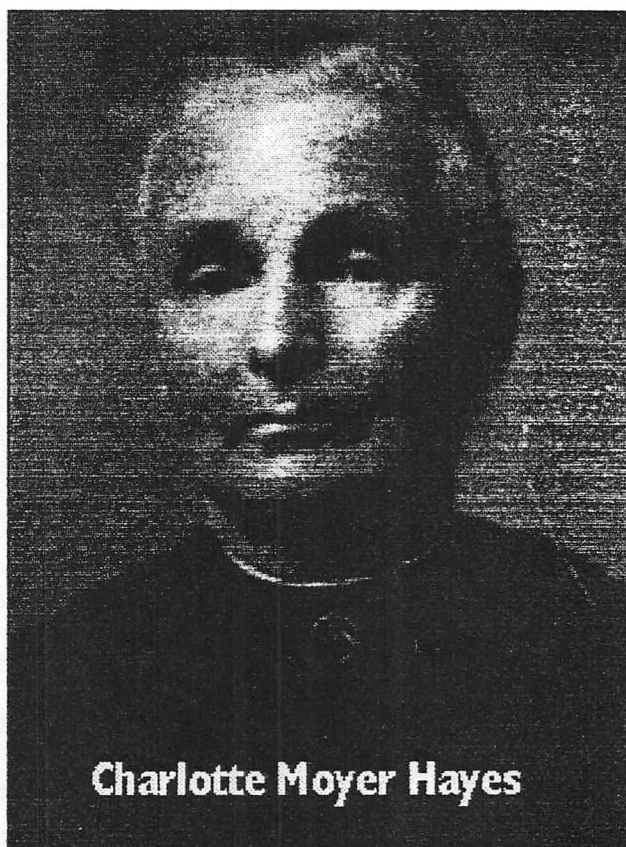

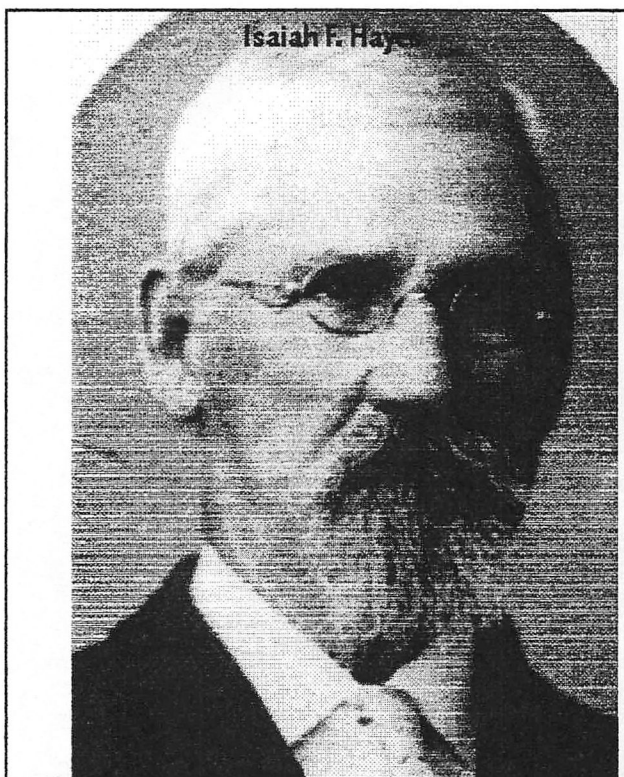

In my May 9 e-mail I asked how familiar you were with the Williamsport, Cogan Station, Montoursville area of PA. Have you done any research in the courthouse and cemeteries in that area? My records show that Isaiah Hayes and Mary Ann Miller Hayes are buried at Wildwood Cemetery but I don't know where that is. Do you and can you describe where in Williamsport it is? Have you ever been there and do they have stones?

I would like to start gathering more information about John Hayes and his two wives,

Rachel and ????. All I have is a list of children by each of the wives. My database doesn't give a source for the children but assume it might be from the information Helen Hayes gave me or from one of the local printed histories. What sources do you have?

For the past few days, I have been working on a picture project that will save what pictures I can identify on floppy disks. I am using the equipment at my office. Here are a few of my great grandparents, Isaiah F. Hayes and Charlotte Moyer:

Now that I have moved the picture files into this one, I will try and print it. My small desk-top printer may not do the pictures justice so I may rerun the letter at work in the morning using my HP machine.

Please drop me an e-mail message when you get this. I am really anxious to see if we can exchange pictures.

Sincerely,

Ann A. Hennings
